

Philadelphia Street

Nixon Avenue

9th

8th

7th

Gompers Avenue

Gompers Avenue

Downtown Indiana Mural Tour

These murals were made possible through the partnerships of Dripped on the Road, Spruce Arts, the Indiana County Office of Planning & Development, Sustainable Indiana County, Indiana County Conservation District, KOBRA Paint, the Jimmy Stewart Museum, Pennsylvania Rural Arts Alliance, The Artists Hand Gallery, Indiana University of Pennsylvania, ArtsPath, and Smog Armor.

Artists include Risa Boogie, Damien Mitchell, Evan Lovett, Sarah Rutherford, Ramiro Davaro-Comas, Denton Burrows, Jonathan Neville, and Bernie Wilke. Special thanks to Brian Jones, Hannah Harley, Jeff Wacker, Tom Harley, Tim Toy, Chris Catalfamo, and Larry Stadtmiller and the Indiana community.

Please note that some murals are located inside buildings, and that those businesses and organizations might have limited viewing hours.

THE SPRUCE
ART RESIDENCY

KOBRA

INDIANA COUNTY
CONSERVATION DISTRICT

1 - Her Voice Carries

580 Philadelphia St + Gompers Ave

Sarah Rutherford's mural of a yoga instructor from Rochester, NY is a continuation of her project, Her Voice Carries. Rutherford brings portraits of inspiring women to other communities and creates sister communities between cities, towns, and neighborhoods.

2 - American Kestrel

580 Philadelphia St + Gompers Ave

The bird oversees the entire area with two small field mice, who are situated on the brick wall. Painted by Evan Lovett.

3 - Sunflower

580 Philadelphia St + Gompers Ave

Evan Lovett's mural of sunflowers decorates the staired entrance to Sunflower Yoga Studio.

4 - It's A Wonderful Life Wall

580 Philadelphia St + Gompers Ave

Risa Boogie's mural along Gompers Avenue shares "It's a Wonderful Life" along with messages of love and unity.

5 - Edward Abbey

Near 6th + Gompers Ave

A mural by Damien Mitchell of author and environmentalist Edward Abbey, who was born and raised in Indiana County.

6 - Creative Sustainability

Near 6th + Gompers Ave

A mural by Denton Burrows, showing industry and nature.

7 - Ratchi with a Wave

Near 6th + Gompers Ave

Pedestrians can see a colorful mural of a Ratchi riding a wave produced by the water from a fire hose. Mural by Jonathan Neville.

8 - Bicycle Pups

36 S 5th St + Gompers Ave

Commissioned by Indiana Cycling Center, this mural showcases the business' pups riding a bicycle and holding a Christmas tree. Mural by Ramiro Davaro-Comas and Damien Mitchell.

9 - Christmas Tree Capital

550 Philadelphia Street + S Taylor Avenue

This mural by Ramiro Davaro-Comas pays homage to Indiana County's legacy as the Christmas Tree Capital of the World through playful characters as the evergreen trees.

10 - Metamorphosis Portrait

637 Philadelphia Street and Nixon Avenue

A collaboration between Damien Mitchell and Denton Burrows, blended portrait of fellow artist Johnathan Neville.

11 - Nocturnal Scene

637 Philadelphia Street

Painted in an evening along the stairwell inside the Indiana Theater building, Evan Lovett's mural is a high contrast mural, featuring a raccoon and an industrial scene.

12 - Jimmy Stewart Portrait

845 Philadelphia Street

Damien Mitchell's portrait of Jimmy Stewart is in the third-floor lobby of the Jimmy Stewart Museum. This mural greets guests as they step out of the elevator to visit the museum.

13 - Coal Miner

637 Philadelphia Street + Nixon Avenue

Evan Lovett painted this portrait of a coal miner on the back of the Indiana Theater building. He included a bright yellow canary, tools, and shiny pieces of coal along the bottom of the frame, paying respect to the region's history and its legacy.

14 - A Vision for Downtown : Building on the Past

501 Philadelphia Street

This mural depiction of the freeing of Anthony Hollingsworth and was painted by Bernie Wilke with assistance by Chris Catalfamo, and Larry Stadtmiller.

15 - Creative Spirit

637 Philadelphia Street + 7th Street

This mural depicts the Creative Spirit, which originates from the vortex on the left side and follows the red/orange/yellow path that unifies all the diverse aspects of Indiana County both past and present. This mural was a collaboration of a group of about 20 local artists led by Bernie Wilke and Brian Jones .

16 - Community Perspective

580 Philadelphia Street + 6th Street

This mural depicts a diverse group of Indiana residents looking at their hometown with new eyes with new perspectives. The girl is blowing a wish for Indiana. Painted by Bernie Wilke with assistance by historian Chris Catalfamo.

17 - Bear

580 Philadelphia Street + 6th Street

Damien Mitchell's mural of a bear on fire references the fires occurring in California and his home country of Australia.

For more information about recent murals, go to www.drippedontheroad.com and www.sprucearts.com. For information on Indiana County tourism, visit www.visitindianacountypa.org.